Parish Office Opening Hours

Tuesdays: 1.00 pm - 4.00 pm; Fridays: 9.00 am - 1.30 pm.

Dear Parishioner and Gentle Reader,

You might remember the scene in last Sunday's Gospel where Jairus, the father of the twelve-year-old girl and the woman who had suffered with haemorrhaging for twelve years approach Jesus and fall on their knees. Both of these people had tremendous faith in the healing power of Jesus and their trust was amply rewarded.

In today's Gospel we hear that Jesus has returned to his hometown of Nazareth, but the local people do not accept him with the result that 'he could work no miracle there - he was amazed at their lack of faith.'

Instead of opening their minds to his wisdom, they close their hearts to his message. The sad thing about this visit to Nazareth is that the people weren't even prepared to listen. "This is the carpenter, surely, the son of Mary".

We are all familiar with that kind of begrudgery, when the one who is seen to succeed must be knocked off their perch at all costs. “Just who does he think he is?” are words that are familiar to us. You might recall a time when family or friends belittled you or treated you with cynicism? How did you deal with it? And what was the learning?

“Although they heard you, Lord, they failed to listen. They heard only what they wanted to hear. The truth hurt them; you made them feel uncomfortable; and they rejected you. Help us to be open to young people with their energy and idealism. Help us to be receptive to the elderly with their experience and wisdom. Make us attentive to God’s Word that comes in unexpected ways so that we can bring peace to a troubled world.”

With every blessing, Monsignor Colum.
