Dear Parishioner and Gentle Reader,

The month of November - a month of gloom, wedged between the abundance of autumn and the expectation of Christmas joy. With its shifting seasons and changing cycle of nature, November reminds us that all life is constantly changing: trees stripped of their autumn colours, fields empty and forlorn, streetlights struggling to make a difference in the early morning mist.

It is the time of year when the weather is changing, and the days are getting shorter. Nature seems to be preaching her own silent sermon about the end of things. This is the time of year when the Church invites us to remember those who have gone before us ‘marked with the sign of faith’.

Praying for the dead has always been an important part of our Catholic tradition and that practice is beautifully captured in the common custom of visiting their graves and writing out the family dead list at this time of year.

November is maybe a good time to think about our own mortality and to reflect on the many questions that come to mind: “Is there life after death? If so, what will it be like? Will I meet again my husband/wife/parents? What about the generations before them? And what about deceased babies who died before their time and those who were buried, so insensitively, outside consecrated ground?” These are honest questions that may poke at the heart as the chill wind grips you some November evening. For that reason, the following story might be relevant:

There were twin boys in their mother's womb. They noticed the umbilical cord and decided that their mother must love them very much, when she was prepared to share her very life with them. As time went by, they began to speculate about the possibility of birth and what lay beyond the womb. One of them was a budding atheist! "How do you know there's any life after birth? Have you ever seen anyone who was born? Has anybody ever come back to tell us? How do you know we have a mother? Maybe we only invented her for our own consolation!" After some time, the twins were born. When they felt safe to do so, they opened their eyes, and looked up into the face of their smiling mother. Then they looked at each other with a look which spoke volumes: "How could we have possibly understood something as beautiful and as wonderful as this?"

With every blessing, Monsignor Colum.

Mission Sunday 15th October

A very sincere thanks to all who donated to this year's Annual Mission Collection. Despite the challenges of the present times, the contribution from Beragh Parish amounted to £1,804.00. This represents huge generosity on the part of our people and will be greatly appreciated by those who are struggling desperately in exceedingly difficult circumstances.

Parish Dead List

Envelopes for the Parish Dead list are available at the back of the chapel in Beragh. These should be completed and returned before Sunday 15th November.

Face Coverings in Churches

Thank you for continuing to ensure that our celebration of Mass and other Liturgies remain safe places for all who join us. It has been acknowledged that the wearing of face masks, in conjunction with hand washing and social distancing etc are likely to reduce the spread of Coronavirus, thus helping to protect others and ourselves. People attending church should wear face coverings, with the exception of those people considered exempt and children under the age of 13.

Music and Singing at Mass

Beragh Parish is blessed with a number of people throughout the parish who have been blessed with beautiful singing voices in addition to others who are able to play musical instruments. We are extremely grateful to those individuals and groups who use their God given talents to enhance our liturgical celebrations. With the current Covid-19 restrictions, regular large choirs are discouraged, but that should not prevent us from having some music and singing at Sunday Mass.

I am extending an invitation to people throughout the parish who would be interested to kindly make contact with Mrs Clare McAleer - (Telephone: 07984 653 698 email: cmcaleer85@gmail.com). The intention is to draw up a rota for 9.00 am and 11.30 am Masses in Beragh.
