Parish Office Opening Hours

Tuesdays: 1.00 pm - 4.00 pm;   Fridays: 9.00 am - 1.30 pm.

Dear Parishioner and Gentle Reader,

Sometimes people are better remembered for the mistakes they make than the good they do. The score missed in the final minutes of a crucial football match can blight a whole career.

Thomas made one of the most perfect acts of faith when he said, “My Lord and my God”. Yet he is remembered not as a ‘believing’ Thomas but as a ‘doubting’ Thomas. And that’s what makes him very real - the stubborn independent streak, the open enquiring mind, the humble willingness to be convinced, and finally the total forthright commitment to serve and to give.

Thomas had chosen to distance himself from the other apostles, to grieve in solitude and to work through his loss alone. And yet, it was only when he re-joined the community that his deepest questions were answered. On his own, he had only his doubts for company; in community he encountered the Risen Lord. The story of Thomas calls each of us into community and it beckons to those who no longer walk with us. It assures us that healthy questioning can lead to worthwhile knowledge. It challenges us above all, to accept that faith is not just a creed of belief but a fire in the heart that impels us to reach out in service to others.

May we be counted among those “who have not seen and yet believe”. And may St Thomas, the patron of doubters, pray for all of us.

Every blessing,                           Monsignor Colum

Divine Mercy Sunday

The Feast of Divine Mercy, which is celebrated today, has been regarded as a special day in Lithuania and Poland since 1996, but was not formally recognised as a Feast Day until the Canonisation of St. Faustina in 2000 when Pope John Paul II inaugurated the Sunday after Easter as the Feast of Mercy.

On this day, people all over the world, will celebrate the feast. The Divine Mercy Chaplet will be prayed in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Beragh at 3.00 pm followed by Mass. From St. Faustina's Diary, it is clear that this day, is a day chosen by the Lord as a day of extraordinary graces, a complete outpouring of God's mercy upon all who approach Him with great trust and faith.

Trócaire

Trócaire needs our help more than ever. Owing to the current restrictions it will be difficult for all boxes to be returned in the normal way during the Easter ceremonies. The Government this year has agreed to match-fund all donations that are received by Trócaire NI. There is, however, a cut-off date, so we are asked to ensure that donations are returned to the parish in the coming weeks of April early May.
