Dear Parishioner and Gentle Reader,

November is a month to remember; we remember especially all those who have gone before us “marked with the sign of faith”. November is also a month which invites us to value and appreciate the importance of time. We have but one life and no moment can ever be repeated. I would like you to consider the following two reflections by unknown authors:

“First, I was dying to finish primary school and start college. Then I was dying to finish college and start working. Then I was dying to marry and have children. Then I was dying for my children to grow old enough for school. Then I was dying to see them settle and have their own families. Then I was dying to retire. Now I am dying, and I have suddenly realised that I forgot to live.

And another reminder of the value of each moment:

“To realise the value of one year: Ask a student who has failed a final year exam.

To realise the value of one month: Ask a mother who has given birth to a premature baby.

To realise the value of one week: Ask an editor of a weekly newspaper.

To realise the value of one hour: Ask the friends who are waiting to meet.

To realise the value of one minute: Ask a person who has missed the train, bus or plane.

To realise the value of one second: Ask the person who has escaped the accident.

To realise the value of one millisecond: Ask the person who has won a silver medal in the Olympics.”

November offers many blessings. May we be more reflective in our living, may the Lord be merciful to the dying and may He grant life eternal to the dead.

With every blessing, Monsignor Colum.

Week of Witness Sunday 21st November - Saturday 27th November 2021

Week of Witness will take place from Sunday 21st November -

Saturday 27th November 2021. During the week, we will remember all who have given great witness to their faith in the past and those who continue to give witness today and all who will continue to give great witness in the future.

On Wednesday 24th November (Red Wednesday) Archbishop Eamon will celebrate a special Liturgy in St Patrick's Cathedral, Armagh, at 7.30 pm. As part of the Liturgy, the Archbishop will speak with two young people who give great witness to their faith today.

People are invited to wear something red on the evening as we remember all who have given and all who continue to give great witness to their faith today.

After the Liturgy, Archbishop Eamon will launch a new book in The Synod Hall titled "In His Master's Footsteps - The Way of the Cross in the company of St Oliver Plunkett, Archbishop and Martyr" edited by Canon Benedict Fee.

All are welcome to join on the evening.

Alcohol Awareness Week 16th - 22nd November 2021

Al-Anon offering Family support for those affected by alcoholism

Local people, from all backgrounds, are being urged to think about their drinking as we approach Alcohol Awareness Week 16th - 22nd November.

Al-Anon wishes to remind the community that help is available for anyone who needs it.

In Northern Ireland there are 48 Al-Anon groups, and more than 700 Al-Anon Family Groups throughout the UK and the Republic of Ireland. They provide support to anyone whose life is, or has been affected by someone else drinking.

Anything discussed within an Al-Anon meeting is treated as confidential, including your presence at the meeting.

There are no fees for membership or attending meetings as Al-Anon is funded solely through members own voluntary donations and a collection will normally be held at each meeting.

Meetings usually last an hour and a half.

"You don't need to speak at a meeting unless you are comfortable doing so" said a spokesperson. "You can sit and listen."

All meetings are listed on the website www.al-anonuk.org.uk, or you can call our Confidential Helpline on 02890682368 10.00 am - 1.00 pm or 6.00 pm - 10.00 pm.

'Across The Hedgerow' Project (NI)

Rural Support in partnership with Young Farmer Clubs of Ulster, launched the 'Across the Hedgerow' programme last year. This service provides older, vulnerable, and isolated members of the farming community with listening support and companionship via telephone calls. The aim is to improve the emotional wellbeing of the client. The winter months can be a very lonely and isolating time for older people; therefore, this service would provide them with the listening ear and companionship they need. If you know of any older individual, from a farming/rural community, who will benefit from this service please inform them of 'Across the Hedgerow'.

International Eucharistic and Marian Shrine, Knock

The Covid-19 pandemic has been a particularly difficult time for those who have lost loved ones and have often had to cope with their grief without many of the usual spiritual and community supports.

To pastorally support everyone who has suffered the pain of bereavement during the pandemic, and in the context of the month of November as the traditional time when we remember our dead, this Sunday, 14th November at 3.00 pm, the Bishops of Ireland will undertake a pilgrimage to the International Eucharistic and Marian Shrine in Knock. The bishops will concelebrate Mass for all those who have died in our country during the pandemic, and for their families. At the Mass the bishops will also offer prayers of thanksgiving for all those who so selflessly sacrificed so much during the pandemic. This Mass will be live-streamed on www.knockshrine.ie and broadcast on the RTÉ News Now digital television channel and online.

The bishops invite everyone to join with them in prayer on this solemn occasion.

Pathways - Adult Faith Development Programme

Two-year, part-time course, now enrolling for 2021-2023 intake. Have you ever thought about exploring your faith... or wished that you could broaden your understanding of your faith? Would you like to explore, discuss and reflect upon issues and questions of faith, the Church, and how to link faith to life? If the answer is “yes”, then Pathways may be for you. The course runs one Saturday per month (10.00 am - 4.30 pm) from October to June, either in-house at Drumalis, Larne or online via Zoom.

November Dead List

The November Dead List forms are available at the back of the Chapel. These can be completed and returned by Friday 26th November. During the coming year, Mass will be offered each month for those people, and they will be prayed for every Sunday.

Beragh Parish Pastoral Council

In the past, Beragh parish has been well served by many people who worked on various Parish Councils and more recently on the Parish Pastoral Council. I want to pay tribute to those men and women and pray for those who are now deceased. In light of the Synodal Process referred to in Archbishop Eamon Martin's Pastoral Letter of last week, it is important that each parish has an active Pastoral Council. Therefore, I would like to encourage the formation of a Pastoral Council for Beragh Parish and I would be grateful to hear from parishioners who might like to be considered for this role. Before Covid 19, we had made some attempts to begin the process, but unfortunately that had to be postponed.

Very shortly there will be training and formation provided for those who might be interested in learning more, without any obligation. Please submit your name and contact details to the parish office beragparochial@btinternet.com before Friday 3rd December.

Covid 19 Wakes and Funerals

When a person has died as a result of Covid 19, new regulations governing arrangements for wakes and funerals have come into effect from September 2021. Where there is a negligible risk of transmitting the Covid 19 infection, the remains of the deceased are allowed to be taken home and viewing is permitted. They can also be brought to the church for the funeral Mass. However, the regulations regarding numbers permitted to gather, social distancing, hand hygiene and face coverings must be observed. Anyone who has had a positive Covid 19 test result or anyone who is symptomatic should not attend.

Celtic Spirituality: What is it? Has it any significance for life today?

November 17th, 24th (Michael Drumm).

There is a lot of talk today about Celtic Spirituality. But the question arises - what exactly is it? Does such a spirituality exist? Is it anything more than romantic nostalgia for a dead past? Who were the Celts? Can we access their spiritual insights?

During this course some characteristics of Celtic life will be identified which might legitimately form the foundations for a renewed Celtic spirituality today.

€100 for full course.

Exploring the Synodal Pathway: The Ongoing Reception of Vatican II

November 18th, 25th (Janet Forbes and Oonagh O'Brien).

This course will explore the upcoming Synod as the continuation of the Second Vatican Council with a particular focus on the Spirituality of Synodality; the participation of all, especially young people, and the need for structures and resources to support the local church.

Janet Forbes and Oonagh O'Brien featuring Sr Nathalie Becquart and Rafael Luciani.

€100 for full course.

Week-end Masses

I am aware that some people in the parish are quite annoyed there is no Mass in St Malachy's, Seskinore on Sunday and no Mass in St Patrick's, Drumduff on Saturday evening, as was the practice in recent years. I share their disappointment, but unfortunately the situation is outside my control. I would love to be able to reinstate the arrangements we had prior to Covid-19.

However, the current regulations regarding places of worship are determined, not by numbers in attendance, but by capacity. It is the responsibility of the parish to ensure that the building can safely accommodate people by ensuring the stipulated social distancing, in addition to the other protocols regarding signage, ventilation, and sanitisation etc. Given the size of Seskinore and Drumduff churches, it is not possible to have public week-end Masses until the Health Authorities and the Executive relax the present guidelines.

Covid-19

While the Executive has decided to ease the restriction of face coverings in places of worship, Church leaders are encouraging people to continue to use them as a precautionary measure against the spread of infection.

Fundraising Update - Trócaire

In the coming weeks and months, it is possible that a Trócaire fundraiser may call to your home inviting monthly donations. Fundraising representatives will be wearing Trócaire blue branded jackets and face masks and will adhere to COVID compliance guidelines to ensure safety measures are met.

The door-to-door campaign allows us to reach people who have not donated to our Lenten appeal and also gives people the choice to donate in different ways. Monthly donations help Trócaire to plan ahead and have greater impact with the communities we exist to serve.

PS If you would like to contact Trócaire directly on any matter related to this initiative, you can contact Louise Walker on 00353 5053 225 or louise.walker@trocaire.org
