A Word of Thanks

Sincere thanks to all who participated in last Tuesday's celebration of the Assumption at the Mass Rock at Clougherney. Thanks to the Parish Pastoral Council who organised the occasion and to the Choir for the beautiful music and hymns.

A special word of appreciation to Seamus & Mary Barr for hosting the gathering of so many people and all who organised the buses and all those who walked in pilgrimage to the site, praying the Rosary.

Marking the anniversary of Mick & Mary Grimes RIP (and all those who died because of the Omagh atrocity), we appreciate greatly the willingness of the Grimes family, in marking the occasion in such a poignant way and at a place of such significance. Congratulations to Mick & Mary's sons and grandsons who cycled from Cork, arriving in Beragh for the Mass, all in memory of their deceased family and raising funds to support the poor and the needy through the S.V.D.P. Society.
