Dear Parishioner and Gentle Reader,

As schools close and the prospect of summer holidays loom before us, I wish all of you a safe and enjoyable break wherever you go and whatever you do. Could I dare suggest that you might consider undertaking the “Three Day” pilgrimage to Lough Derg?

The traditional Three Day Pilgrimage is a programme of prayer, fasting (one simple Lough Derg meal each day), walking bare-footed and undertaking a 24 hour Vigil. Without shoes and sleep and with little food, pilgrims are confronted with the essential aspects of life, an experience which can enable them to discover their hidden strengths and rediscover what really matters in life. Many people find that their pilgrimage to Lough Derg helps them to deal better with life’s ordinary struggles. Suffice to say, “For those who have never been, no words can describe it and for those who have been, no words are necessary!”

In today's Gospel Jesus also sets out on a pilgrimage. His pilgrimage would take him to Jerusalem on a penitential journey that no Lough Derg pilgrim would ever envisage. In his case it would result in his passion and crucifixion.

Along the way three people offer themselves as disciples, and in each case, he lets them know what a radical decision it is to follow him. They must cast aside their worldly worries and concerns and be single-minded in their discipleship. Following Jesus requires great sacrifice, and there are no excuses. As always, the Gospel may well be challenging but it is also encouraging. Today it celebrates all those who live lives of generous commitment: whether married or single, religious or lay, young or old, man or woman. And because the Gospel affirms us, we can make our own the words of today's responsorial psalm, "You will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, at your right-hand happiness for ever."

With every blessing, Monsignor Colum.

A prayer for those living alone

I live alone, Lord, stay by my side.

In all my daily needs, be thou my guide.

Grant me good health, for that indeed I pray,

To carry on my work from day to day.

Spare me from fire, from flood, malicious tongues,

From thieves, from fear and evil ones.

If sickness or an accident befall, humbly, Lord, I pray

Hear thou my call.

And when I'm feeling low or in despair,

Lift up my heart and help me in my prayer.

I live alone, dear lord, yet have no fear,

Because I feel your presence very near.

Appreciation and thanks

Fr Sean Dempsey who visited the parish last weekend wishes to offer his thanks for the hospitality and welcome he received. Whatever envelopes are returned in the coming weeks will be forwarded to him to assist the work of the Comboni Missionaries in various parts of the developing world.

Ordinations to the Priesthood

As you may already know, Colm Hagan (Drumcree Parish) and Stephen Wilson (Coalisland Parish) will be ordained to the Priesthood on Sunday, 26th June, in St Patrick's Cathedral, Armagh. Sunday Missal

Because we are still not allowed to distribute parish bulletins in paper form, some people regret not being able to follow the readings and prayers during Sunday Mass. It might be opportune, therefore, to consider purchasing a Roman Missal for the New Year, which would cover the 3-year cycle.

If anyone would like to place an order, please do so by e mail beraghparochial@btinternet.com or contact the Parish Office on 02880 758 206.

Covid-19

While the Executive has decided to ease the restriction of face coverings in places of worship, Church leaders are encouraging people to continue to use them as a precautionary measure against the spread of infection.

Congratulations

We welcome into our Community, through the Sacrament of Baptism, Tyler-Shane Smyth/Tisdall.
