Appreciation

Now that the Christmas Season is over, thanks to all those who participated in and helped prepare for all the liturgies over Advent and Christmas. Particular thanks to all those who took part in the Carol Service, those who prepared the Churches with decorations and especially to Damien Gartland for the beautiful new crib; Matt Devlin (Balloo Plant Hire) and Paddy McCarney who operated the crane for the putting up of the star alongside Damien Donnelly. The help and support of everyone is greatly appreciated!

GAA Light Up Ireland & Every Step Counts Challenge.

Our club will be again participating in the 32 County 'Lights up Ireland!' initiative, this is to provide a safe place that you can come and walk in these dark winter days/nights. The initiative starts 8th January until 12th February. During this period our walk around the pitch will be open and lit for anyone wanting to use it. We will advertise nights for gatherings and share them in our socials. To get registered download the MYLIFE APP follow the easy step by step Instructions (select *Ulster GAA - *Beragh Red Knights.) Get registered, start your trackers, and get walking. This is open to club members and anyone within the community. Tea & Coffee will be served at the Hub on Thursday evenings 7:30-8:00 during the challenge for participants. Remember, Health is at the heart of Every Club.

Kahi Bo & Pilates

The Club is offering a 6-week block of Kahi Bo and Pilates classes on a Monday and Wednesday evening. These classes were extremely popular in the past. Everyone welcome & it is suitable for all levels, just bring your mat. To secure your slot Contact Orla 07796230135.
